

CONFERENCE SPONSORSHIP

Become an EduVision 2005 International Conference sponsor and your company will have the opportunity:

- to be recognized as an organization that is committed to supporting technology innovations in education and training
- to receive excellent publicity and recognition locally and internationally.
- to obtain greater recognition for your products and services.

Sponsorship of Participants

Your company can give tertiary level students, college lecturers and teachers the opportunity to learn more about the challenges that education institutions and business organizations will face in the future.
